Welcome to VCU!

Congratulations on becoming part of the Ram Family! Now that you’re here, there’s a few things you should know about your student ID as you navigate around campus. Your VCUCard is your official ID at VCU and while on campus you are required to carry it. Fortunately, you will want to keep your VCUCard close everywhere you go because you need it for almost everything! And because it allows you to do so much, it really is the only “card” you will need at VCU!
